Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(I) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	4-9	YES
	Claims	1-3	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims		YES
	Claims	1-9	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-9	YES
	Claims		NO

2. Citations and explanations:

1 WO 03 040543 A (D1) (cf. figures 1-3) discloses a fuel injection device, in particular for an internal combustion engine having direct fuel injection, having a housing (1) and at least two valve elements (5, 7) which are arranged in the housing (1), are coaxial with respect to one another and are in each case assigned at least one fuel outlet opening (14, 12), wherein a first sealing region (32) is provided on the outer valve element (5) radially outwards from the at least one fuel outlet opening (14) which is assigned thereto, said first sealing region (32) interacting with a valve seat (10) on the housing and being capable of separating the at least one fuel outlet opening (14) from a high pressure connection (16), wherein an additional sealing region (30) is provided on the outer valve element (5) between the at least one fuel outlet opening (14) which is assigned thereto and the inner valve element (7).

Box No. V

Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability;
citations and explanations supporting such statement

1.2 Dependent claims 2-8 do not appear to contain any additional features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which claims 2-8 refer back, meet the PCT requirements for novelty or inventive step, because the subject matter of claims 2, 3 is known from D1 and the subject matter of claims 4-8 concerns a minor structural modification to the fuel injection device as per D1, of the kind that a person skilled in the art routinely makes on the basis of familiar considerations.

1.3 The features of independent claim 9 relate to an obvious method for producing an injection valve, of the kind that a person skilled in the art could arrive at without thereby being inventive.
